

Le Muricce, a characterful country house in the Chianti

Le Muricce is a historic Chianti area building in a 750-year-old stone building with a large garden and park overlooking the Siena area.

The house is in a strategic position near Siena in just a few minutes (6 km), with the advantage of enjoying the park.

At Le Muricce, you will find great welcome and service for your desired holiday, organized with the best of local traditions and facilities.

Le Muricce property offers small elegant furnishings in a private entrance and space, with a view of the Siena area.

